

Jeremy Milloy, Ph.D

www.jeremymilloy.com

jmilloy@mta.ca

@jeremymilloy

Current Position

W. P. Bell Postdoctoral Fellow, Mount Allison University, Sackville, New Brunswick

- Researching and writing a book about addiction, recovery, and the North American workplace while teaching and contributing to departmental service

2016-2018

Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC) Post-Doctoral Fellow, Frost Centre for Canadian Studies and Indigenous Studies, Trent University, Peterborough, Ontario

- Researched the relationship between addiction, recovery, and work under capitalism since 1965

Education

Ph.D, History, Simon Fraser University, Vancouver, British Columbia, 2015

- Completed and defended a prizewinning dissertation on workplace violence in the United States and Canada, 1960-1980

-Dissertation supervised by Mark Leier; other committee members included Karen Ferguson and Heather Ann Thompson

M.A., History, Simon Fraser University, Vancouver, British Columbia, 2007

- “Fast Food Alienation: Service Work and Unionism in British Columbia, 1968-1998”

B.A. (Hons), History, Trent University, Peterborough, Ontario, 2005

Publications

Books

- Blood, Sweat, and Fear: Violence at Work in the North American Auto Industry, 1960-80. Vancouver: University of British Columbia Press, 2017. Published in the United States by the University of Illinois Press.
- as co-editor with Joan Sangster, Violence in the Historical Workplace. Toronto: University of Toronto Press (in peer review).

Peer-Reviewed Articles

- “Curb Heroin In Plants (C.H.I.P.): Revisiting A Mid-1970s Intervention into Workplace Heroin Addiction Created and Led by Detroit Autoworkers.” American Journal of Public Health 109, no. 3 (March 2019): 406-411.
- “‘Chrysler Pulled The Trigger’: Competing Understandings of Workplace Violence During the 1970s and Radical Legal Practice.” Labour/Le Travail 74 (Fall 2014): 51-88.
- “Learning on the Job: The 1998 Squamish McDonald’s Campaign and New Possibilities for Fast Food Workers.” Left History 16, no. 1 (Spring 2012): 57-91.
- “Braverman’s New World? Recent Historical Scholarship on the Labour Process.” Left History 15, no. 2 (Fall 2012): 91-101.
- “A Battle Royal: Service Work Activism and the Royal York Strike, 1961-1962.” Labour/Le Travail 58 (Fall 2006): 13-40.

Other Publications

- With Christo Aivalis, Greg Kealey, and Julia Smith, “Back to Work: Revitalizing Canadian Labour and Working-Class History.” Active History, September 21, 2015.

- As part of the Graphic History Collective, May Day: A Graphic History of Struggle. Toronto: Between The Lines Press, 2012.

Selected Book Reviews

- "The Deindustrialized World: Confronting Ruination in Postindustrial Places," eds. High, MacKinnon, Perchard, Canadian Historical Review 100, no. 1 (March 2019): 133-135.
- "Dying for A Paycheck," by Jeffrey Pfeffer, New Labor Forum 28, no. 1 (Winter 2019): 116-119.
- "The Great Leveler: Violence and the History of Inequality from the Stone Age to the Twenty-First Century," by Walter Scheidel, Labour/Le Travail 81 (Spring 2018): 318-319.
- "Union Power: Solidarity and Struggle in Niagara," by Patrias and Savage, Canadian Historical Review 94, no. 3 (Fall 2013): 470-472.
- "The Invisible Handcuffs of Capitalism," by Michael Perelman, Labour/Le Travail 71 (Spring 2013): 319-323.
- "(Re)Thinking Violence in Health Care Settings: A Critical Approach," (eds. Holmes, Perron, Rudge), Canadian Public Policy 38, no. 4 (December 2012): 606-608.
- "American Railroad Labor and the Genesis of the New Deal, 1919-1935," by Jon R. Huibregtse, Labour/Le Travail 69 (Spring 2012): 232-235.
- "When the State Trembled: How A.J. Andrews and the Citizens' Committee Broke the Winnipeg General Strike," by Reinhold Kramer and Tom Mitchell, Left History 16, no. 1 (Spring 2012): 150-152.
- "Stronger Together: The Story of SEIU," by Don Stillman, Labour/Le Travail 68 (Fall 2011): 225-227.

Teaching and Course Development Experience

Course Instructor, Department of History, Trent University, Peterborough and Oshawa, Ontario, 2018-19

- Taught three courses: one on the United States between Revolution and Reconstruction, one on violence in pre-20th century Canada, and a survey course on the history of Canada

Course Instructor: School for the Study of Canada, Trent University, Peterborough, Ontario, Summer 2018

- Led an interdisciplinary online course on conflict in Canada, past and present

Course Instructor: School for the Study of Canada, Trent University, Peterborough, Ontario, 2017-18

- Taught a second-year course on the history of the 1960s; lectured, led two seminars, and graded all assignments

Course Instructor: School for the Study of Canada, Trent University, Peterborough, Ontario, 2016-17

- Taught a fourth-year seminar, as part of my work as a post-doctoral fellow
- Connected students with Artspace, a local artist-run gallery; led field trips, supervised in-depth research projects, and facilitated a student visual exhibition for the university community
- Served as a mentor for a Master's student researching labour activism in Windsor and gave a public lecture at the Frost Centre on drug use and the workplace

Assistant Professor: School for the Study of Canada, Trent University, Peterborough, Ontario, 2015-16

- Taught three interdisciplinary courses each term as part of this limited term appointment, while also participating in departmental service and event planning

- I deployed a variety of teaching techniques, including image analysis, cultural reviews, conflict resolution, large-group historical role-plays, mini-course plans, research proposal development, and blogging groups
- Managed several teaching assistants and marking assistants, supporting them in their growth as instructors, while also ensuring that they successfully contributed to students' meeting of the course objectives
- Planned, organized, and staged "Chains Across the Border," an international scholarly panel on mass incarceration featuring scholars, activists, and a former immigration detainee
- Gave a research talk to graduate students about working time and post-work politics

Course Instructor: Department of History, Trent University Durham, Oshawa, Ontario, 2014-15

- Designed and taught two courses: a third-year course on the history of the United States since 1945 and a first-year course on the history of Canada from contact to Stephen Harper's election

Course Instructor: The United States from Revolution to Civil War, History, Trent University, Peterborough, Ontario, 2013-14

- Taught a second-year course I designed on the history of the United States between contact and Reconstruction; lectured, led four seminars, and graded all assignments
- Created a variety of assignments, including a written historical role-play where students wrote about either slavery or the American revolution from the perspective of a historical actor

Tutor Marker: History of the British Empire and Commonwealth, History, Simon Fraser University, Vancouver, British Columbia, Spring 2014, Summer 2014, Winter 2015

- Facilitated this third-year online course for 40 students; graded assignments; ensured course software was working effectively; communicated with students online to help them learn the material and meet their learning goals

Tutor Marker: History of Greek Civilization, History, Simon Fraser University, Vancouver, British Columbia, Summer 2012, Fall 2012, Spring 2013, Summer 2013, Fall 2013

- Led between 40-60 students through this online course; graded assignments; supported student learning through email and discussion forums; identified and managed technical and logistical challenges arising from online distance learning

Teaching Assistant: Canadian History Since Confederation, History, Simon Fraser University, Vancouver, British Columbia, Spring 2007, Spring 2011, Summer 2011

- Conducted tutorials, instructed students, and graded assignments in three separate appointments in this writing-intensive course

Grants, Awards, Distinctions, and Fellowships

- Nicolas-Joseph Cugnot Award, English, for Best Book, Society of Automotive Historians, 2018
- Samuel Fishman Travel Grant, Walter P. Reuther Library for Labor and Urban Affairs, 2018
- Griffin Archival Research Award, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health Archives, 2018 ($1,000)
- Symons Trust Fund For Canadian Studies Award, 2017 ($2,000)
- SSHRC Post-Doctoral Fellowship, 2016 ($81,000)
- The Canadian Historical Association's Eugene A. Forsey Prize, 2016
- Canadian Committee on Labour History Article Prize, 2015
- William and Jane Saywell Memorial Scholarship, 2013 ($1,000)

- Simon Fraser University Graduate Fellowship, 2012 ($6,250)
- SSHRC CGS Michael Smith Foreign Study Supplement, 2012 ($5,400)
- Simon Fraser University President's Scholarship, 2012 ($6,250)
- Simon Fraser University Graduate Fellowship, 2012 ($6,250)
- Aberbach Scholarship, 2011 ($3,990)
- SSHRC CGS Bombardier Doctoral Scholarship, 2009 ($105,000)
- Pacific Century Entrance Scholarship, 2009 ($10,000)
- C.D. Nelson Scholarship, 2009 ($18,000)
- Simon Fraser University Graduate Fellowship, 2007 ($6,000)
- SSHRC CGS Master's Scholarship, 2006 ($17,500)
- Simon Fraser University Graduate Fellowship, 2006 ($6,000)
- Ontario Graduate Scholarship (declined), 2005 ($12,000)
- Syrett Prize, Trent University, 2004 ($400)
- Cranston Scholarship, Trent University, 2004 ($1,000)

Selected Talks and Presentations

- Podcast Interview, Tales From The Reuther Library, 2019, available at <http://reuther.wayne.edu/node/14458> and <https://reuther.wayne.edu/node/14468>
- "Test Cases: Drug Testing, Biological Surveillance, and Canadian Labour Law," at History, Feminism, Theory, Peterborough, 2019
- "The Only Urine You'll Get From Me Is For A Taste Test: The War on Drugs and

Biometric Surveillance of American Workers,” Labor and Working-Class History Association (LAWCHA) National Conference, Durham, North Carolina, 2019

- “High Priority: The War on Drugs and Corporate Surveillance of American Workers,” at Seeing Like A Capitalist: Histories of Commercial Surveillance in America, Hagley Museum and Library, Wilmington, Delaware, 2018

- Podcast Interview, Who Makes Cents?, 2018, available at <https://whomakescentspodcast.com/2018/08/06/episode-47-jeremy-milloy-on-the-political-economy-of-workplace-violence/>

- Podcast Interview, History Slam, 2018, available at: <http://activehistory.ca/2018/02/history-slam-110-blood-sweat-and-fear/>

- Radio Interview, Heartland Labor Forum, KFFI Radio, Kansas City, 2018

- “Shame and Precarity,” Peterborough ArtsWORK Festival, Peterborough, 2017

- Podcast Interview, New Books in American Studies, November 2017, available at: <http://newbooksnetwork.com/jeremy-milloy-blood-sweat-and-fear-violence-at-work-in-the-north-american-auto-industry-1960-1980-u-of-illinois-press-2017/>

- “The State of Canadian Labour,” presented at the 42nd Annual Meeting of the Social Science History Association, Montreal, 2017

- “Author Meets Critics: Blood, Sweat, and Fear: Violence at Work in the North American Auto Industry, 1960-80, presented at the 42nd Annual Meeting of the Social Science History Association, Montreal, 2017

- “Blood, Sweat, and Fear: Violence in American Auto Industry,” at the Wright Museum of African American History, Detroit, 2017

- Television Interview with CKWS TV, Kingston, September 2017, available at: <https://globalnews.ca/video/3740190/author-jeremy-milloy-discusses-the-history-of-workplace-violence>

- “‘One Day McDonald’s Is Going to Be Union’: The 1998 Squamish McDonald’s

Campaign, the Potential and Pitfalls of Community-Based Fast Food Activism,” presented at the 40th Annual Meeting of the Social Science History Association, Baltimore, 2015

- “‘This Is A War We Are Talking About’: Radical Autoworkers Respond to Workplace Violence in the 1970s,” Canadian Historical Association Annual Meeting, Brock University, St. Catharines, 2014

- “‘Detroit is in Our Plants:’ The National Context of Workplace Violence at Windsor Chrysler Factories, 1965-80,” 39th Annual Meeting of the Social Science History Association, Toronto, 2014

- “‘If You Want Blood, I’ll Give You Blood’: The Risk Environment of Workplace Violence at Dodge Main, 1950-80,” 38th Annual Meeting of the Social Science History Association, Chicago, 2013

- “Killing Floor: Responses to Violence at Detroit and Windsor Auto Plants in the 1970s,” Labor and Working-Class History Association (LAWCHA) National Conference, New York City, 2013

- “Workplace Violence at Detroit and Windsor Auto Plants in the 1970s,” North American Labor History Conference, Detroit, 2012

- “Worked to Death? Reconceptualizing Violence and the Postwar Workplace,” New Voices in Labour Studies, York University, Toronto, 2010

- “‘This Is Not A Trend’: The Rise and Fall of Fast Food Unionism in Squamish, British Columbia,” Pacific Northwest Labor History Association (PNLHA) Conference, Portland, 2010

- “From Rebel Workers to ‘Going Postal’? Reflections on Workplace Violence in the Twentieth Century,” LAWCHA/PNLHA, Vancouver, 2008

Professional Associations, Service, and Community Work

Labor Network Representative/Conference Organizer, Social Science History Association (2013-15; 2017-18)

Member, Canadian Association for Work and Labour Studies

Manuscript Reviewer, Between the Lines Press

Member, Race Archive Reading Group, Queen's University (2016-18)

Labor Issues Consultant, Faithful Companions of Jesus Refugee Centre (2011-14)